Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Figure Lending LLC

What we do

How does Figure protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Figure collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Create an online account or apply for a loan
- Obtain a loan or make payments
- Link your Figure online account to your other financial accounts

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- For example, Figure Technologies, Inc.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Figure does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market their products to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- For example, banks and other lenders.

Other important information

For Vermont Residents. We will not disclose information about your creditworthiness to our affiliates and will not disclose your personal information, financial information, credit report, or health information to nonaffiliated third parties to market to you, other than as permitted by Vermont law, unless you authorize us to make those disclosures.
